

Lonesome Pine Sunset Hike Trail Guide

DISTANCE: .78 Miles (one way)
ELEVATION: 1690' (approximate)
ELEVATION GAIN: 725'
TYPE: Out-and-Back
HIKING TIME: 20 minutes
RATING: Strenuous, but short

Directions to Trailhead

Wonder View Dr. & Lake Hollywood Dr.
Hollywood, CA

Exit the 101 at Barham Blvd and head north toward the San Fernando Valley and Burbank. Proceed about .25 mile to Lake Hollywood Drive and turn right. Continue for about another .5 mile. You will pass a turn for Wonder View Drive on your right. DO NOT take this turn. Continue straight, passing the dirt lot on your right. At the next intersection, Wonder View Drive continues straight ahead and Lake Hollywood Drive turns right. Make the right turn and park on Lake Hollywood Drive. Walk back to the intersection and turn right onto Wonder View Drive, following the light green metal fence. The first .25 mile or so is through a residential neighborhood, so be courteous. At the end of the street you will find a gate that marks the official start of the trail.

Parking

Parking is available along Lake Hollywood Dr. Walk back to the intersection with Wonder View Dr and turn right. The first .25 mile or so is through a residential neighborhood, so remember to be courteous.

Unofficial Trailhead

The trail doesn't officially begin until the end of Wonder View Dr., but this is where you begin your walk.

Trailhead

Pass around the gate at the end of Wonder View Dr. and continue for a couple of hundred feet to the electrical tower.

Trail Junction 1

Bear right at the electrical tower and past the bronze marker on to a narrow, rocky single-track use path and continue for approximately .5 mile to the summit of Burbank Peak.

Trail Junction 2

The use path merges with the path from Cahuenga Peak. Make note of the downward sloping rock as you will need to find this junction in the dark on your return if you are hiking the trail for sunset.

Burbank Peak and the Lonesome Pine, 1690'

Congratulations! You've reached the summit! Enjoy the views and don't forget to leave a message in the red tool box under the tree.